Jazz Concert: Martin Listabarth – Dedicated

21 March
2023

19:00

Jazz and classical music combined in a remarkably harmonious way – on his second solo album "Dedicated", the Viennese pianist and composer Martin Listabarth cultivates a sound in which melody, joy of playing and musical finesse merge in a thrilling way. Music that invites us to dream and drift away into other spheres, a pleasantly warm and dignified sound that grabs us with a gentle hand and inevitably draws us under its spell, melodies that – sometimes slightly danceable and swinging, sometimes melancholy in its tone – tell different stories, all without a word.

22 March
2023

11:30 – 13:00

The performance "Ode to Freedom" is the voice of young people on important issues concerning respect for the rights of every human being, including the fundamental right to freedom. It expresses the longing for freedom that humanity has craved since the dawn of time, for which it must constantly fight. It is an attempt to find answers to the questions – what is freedom? Is it given to us forever? Are human rights respected in today's world? What leads to human dramas, wars, conflicts? What can we do to feel free? The performance features dancers of the "Arabeska" group in cooperation with the Panopticum Theatre, who seek answers to the questions posed in creative action. The stage performance will be enriched with visual effects and recordings of the dancers made in the Lublin open air. Performers: Arabeska Dance Group and Panopticum Theatre of the Youth Cultural Centre "Pod Akacją" in Lublin.
