MAIN RAILWAY STATION

The Main Railway Station in Lublin is situated to the south of the city centre, in Dworcowy Square, at the boundary of the Za Cukrownią and Dziesiąta districts.

Connections to the city centre are provided by:

- buses 001, 013, 025, 030, 034, 045,
- trolleybus lines 154, 161
- and the night line N3.

You can also reach there by lines 003, 006, 011, 017, 020, 025, 029 and by trolleybus line 160 by getting off at the Dworzec Główny PKP - Kunickiego 01 stop.

There is a large TAXI rank in front of the station with private carriers' bus and minibus services also available in its immediate vicinity, serving destinations including Biłgoraj, Bychawa, Krzczonów, Żółkiewka, Zakrzówek and Świdnik. There is also the PKS Southern Coach Station situated next to it. Moreover, an absolutely crucial infrastructural project that is currently underway in Lublin – a new metropolitan intermodal coach terminal will be situated directly by the existing central railway station and will be the main hub for the city's transportation system. This brand-new structure with fully high-tech infrastructure is set to be opened in mid-2022. Other facilities at the Main Railway Station include a touch-panel station plan and handrail pads with information in Braille.
